Reference: Engenuity Group, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

Engenuity Group, Inc. has performed various consulting surveying and engineering services for the City of Greenacres since originally being awarded a consulting engineering contract by the City in 2004 (under prior name of SFRN, Inc.). Their services have included plan, plat, and construction plan review, field inspection, design assistance, and opinion of cost evaluations.

The City has found Engenuity Group's staff to be very cooperative and we have been pleased with the timeliness of their responses. The City intends to continue utilizing their services under the existing continuing contract for professional services.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or require more information about our affiliation with Engenuity Group, Inc.

Sincerely,
